

Dear all

We are very sorry to announce that due to the covid-19 crisis, the 2020 conference “Medievalism and the North” in Aarhus cannot go through as planned. Even if things seem to be stabilizing here in Denmark, international travel will very likely remain disrupted throughout the summer. The 2020 Viking Moot has been cancelled, too.

On the positive side, the Danish Research Council who is funding the conference has agreed that funding for 2020 may be transferred to 2021. We have therefore decided to move the conference to 26-27 July 2021 (to align it with the 2021 Viking Moot).

We apologize for the postponement, and very much hope that you will be able to join us next year. Obviously, much can change in a year, and you may of course change the title of your paper, the composition of your panel, or even its theme, if necessary. For now, we just ask you to let us know no later than Thursday, October 1, 2020, whether you will be able to join us for the conference in 2021.

Hoping that you are safe and healthy – we look forward to hearing from you.

On behalf of the conference organizers,
Andreas, Lea, Lis, and Simona

Photo: Medieafdelingen - Moesgaard Museum